

Project 2: Student Performance Analysis

Project Overview

This project evaluates student academic performance across subjects and demographic factors.

Key Insights

- Reading and writing scores show strong correlation
- Students with higher parental education perform better
- Female students slightly outperform male students on average

Conclusion

The findings can guide educators in providing targeted academic support.